PERSONAL ATTENTION & LEADING-EDGE CARE SINCE 1981

Yuvraj Choudhary, MD

Dr. Choudhary is first and foremost an advocate for his patients. He marries a commanding expertise in oncological research and uncompromising approach to treatment with a genuinely comforting bedside demeanor. He believes in integrating multidisciplinary care backed with leading-edge research in order to provide his patients with world-class care. To that end, he works tirelessly to bring new treatment options to the table for his patients—each of whom he views as unique and irreplaceable.

Dr. Choudhary began his education at the Armed Forces Medical College at Pune University in Pune, India, graduating with a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery in 1992. Dr. Choudhary is very proud to have had the honor of serving veterans and active-duty troops during his training. After nearly a decade working and training in New Delhi, Dr. Choudhary relocated to the United States to complete his residency in internal medicine at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, OH, in 2012 and a fellowship in hematology-oncology at Case Western Reserve University in 2015.

He is a member of the American Society of Hematology, the American Society of Oncology, the American Society for Blood and Marrow Transplantation, the American Association for Cancer Research, and the American College of Physicians. In his free time, Dr. Choudhary enjoys traveling, photography, and playing cricket.

DR. CHOUDHARY'S PATIENT CARE PHILOSOPHY:

"Every life deserves world-class care, and we at VCI strive hard to provide that."

WHAT PATIENTS SAY ABOUT DR. CHOUDHARY:

"Dr. Choudhary was the best doctor I've had by far. His concern was genuine and comforting, and he always had the latest treatment to offer for my condition. His new patients will be very fortunate to have him."
