

Our Physicians

Virginia Cancer
Institute

PERSONAL ATTENTION • LEADING-EDGE CARE

Yogesh K. Gandhi, MD

To Dr. Yogesh Gandhi, fighting cancer is truly a life passion. He has been providing quality oncology and hematology care in the Tri-Cities area for the past 14 years. Along with treating patients, this experienced and highly regarded oncologist has been very involved in cancer awareness and public education events in the Tri-Cities area. He's been an active participant in the American Cancer Society's local Relay for Life events. And on the clinical side, he played a major role in helping John Randolph Medical Center get its first-ever accreditation by the American College of Surgeons.

An oncologist serving our Tri-Cities patients, Dr. Gandhi is board certified in medical oncology. He has a particular interest in helping patients with lung, colon and breast cancer, as well as hematologic malignancies like lymphoma.

Dr. Gandhi earned his Bachelor of Medicine at the M.S. University of Baroda in India, and he completed his residency and internship in internal medicine at the University of Illinois College of Medicine at Chicago. In 1997, he completed his fellowship in hematology/oncology at Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center. He began his career as assistant clinical professor at Medical College of Virginia (VCU), where he also worked in Massey Cancer Center's community outreach program. From there, he relocated to Owensboro, Kentucky, to work as a hematologist/oncologist. He returned to the Tri-Cities area in 2000.

When he is not working with his patients to improve their lives, Dr. Gandhi is most likely spending time with his wife and three daughters, playing tennis or table tennis, or taking part in cultural and community activities.

DR. GANDHI'S PATIENT CARE PHILOSOPHY:

"I am passionate about providing quality care that is personalized for my patients and I believe in honest and constant communications with both my patients and their care teams."

WHAT PATIENTS SAY ABOUT DR. GANDHI:

"I have never met a more caring doctor. Dr. Gandhi has treated my husband and my father — I would recommend him to anyone!"

EDUCATION

- MBBS, 1987, M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara, India

INTERNSHIP / RESIDENCY

- University of Illinois College of Medicine at Chicago, University of Illinois Hospitals and Clinics, and West Side VA Medical Center, Chicago, IL, 1991-1994

BOARD CERTIFICATIONS

- Oncology

FELLOWSHIP

- Oncology and Hematology, Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center, Richmond, 1994-1997

TEACHING POSITION

- Assistant Clinical Professor, Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center, Richmond, 1997-1998

TRI-CITIES

Southside Regional Medical Center
210 Medical Park Blvd, Suite 200
Petersburg, VA 23805

PUDDLEDOCK

4730 Puddledock Road
Suite 100
Prince George, VA 23875

Call (804) 431-1100 • (804) 452-3850

To learn more about our practice and the standards we uphold, call us or visit vacancer.com