Deborah A. Weller, FNP, AOCNP

Debbie Weller began her training at Clara Maas School of Nursing in Belleville, New Jersey. She went on to receive her BS in Nursing at Excelsior College in Albany, New York where she also earned her MS in Nursing Clinical Systems Management.

Debbie has worked for Crouse Irving Memorial Hospital and the Hematology Oncology Association of Central New York in Syracuse, and has been with Virginia Cancer Institute since 1998.

Debbie is certified by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners and the Oncology Nursing Certification Corporation and is a member of the national and local chapters of the Oncology Nursing Society, the Virginia Council of Nurse Practitioners, and the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners.

Outside the office, Debbie enjoys hiking, reading, taking walks, playing with her grandkids, visiting the beach, and exploring new areas and wineries with her husband and friends.

DEBORAH'S PATIENT CARE PHILOSOPHY:

"It is a privilege to be able to share in each patient's unique cancer situation and my goal is to try to help them feel as comfortable, confident, and secure as possible throughout this emotional and difficult experience. I believe in open and honest communication and try my best to really listen to what patients have to say."

WHAT PATIENTS SAY ABOUT DEBORAH:

"I've met many NPs during my treatment but Debbie stands out in my mind. She always has a kind, encouraging word for me."
